

FIVE STRIKE RIOTERS GUILTY OF MURDER

Half the Batch Captured at Shadyside Convicted—
Other Five Freed.

THEY KILLED CAPT. CRAW

Dozen Detectives Were Wounded,
One Dying—Threat for Judge in Trial.

HACKENSACK, Feb. 22.—Five of the ten Italian strikers who have been on trial in the Bergen County Court at Hackensack for the past two weeks were convicted to-day of murder in the second degree. They are Antonio Ferraro, Mariano de Lucia, Constantino and Antonio Cella and Antonio Mancini.

The other five prisoners were acquitted and released. The ten men were tried for the murder of Capt. Andrew J. Crow in the strike riot at the Susquehanna Railroad coal yards at Shadyside on December 11, at which time a dozen other detectives were wounded. Detective Clarence Mallory was killed also, but Prosecutor Wright moved only one indictment.

Supreme Court Justice Charles W. Parker, who presided at the trial, immediately sentenced the convicted men. When Ferraro heard his sentence of from fifteen to thirty years in prison he smiled and said: "I thank you."

A similar sentence was given De Lucia. Justice Parker told this prisoner that the evidence pointed to him as the leader of the riot.

"A gap in the evidence has saved you from first degree murder," said Justice Parker.

The Cella brothers each was sentenced to from ten to thirty years and Mancini got from eight to thirty years. Constantino Cella is undersized and only 19 years old.

"The evidence showed that you, though the youngest, were the wildest of all the rioters," said the court to him.

This was the boy who chased Supt. Stone of the Erie over a high trestle in the riot, shooting at him three times. The boy also shot Lieut. John V. Ryerson and shot at three other detectives.

The riot was one of the bloodiest in the history of this country. It began on Tuesday, December 10, when the men demanded higher wages. On that day Detective Thomas Farrington was shot through the head. He recovered.

The five men who were acquitted, Nicola Iossa, Ferdinand Ferraro, Francesco Trochione, Antonio Vecchione and Frank Amatto, all proved alibis. While the trial was going on Justice Parker received this threat by telegraph from Medford, Mass.:

"We, the wage earners of New Bedford, Mass., protest against the rejection of the defence in behalf of the ten prisoners accused of murder. We also demand a fair trial, followed by the immediate release of the prisoners."

"Giuseppe De Lucia, Chairman."

Because of this message Under Sheriff Heath had extra guards in the court room. Many Italians were in court when the sentences were pronounced, but there was no demonstration.

LUNATIC MUST PAY $75 A WEEK.

Mrs. Arthur E. Einstein, Suing for Separation, Wins Alimony.

Arthur E. Einstein, vice-president of Julius Einstein & Co., leather manufacturers, and son of the head of the corporation, has been ordered to pay $75 a week alimony and $200 counsel fees to Mrs. Manuella Einstein, who is suing him for a separation on the ground of cruelty.

Mr. Einstein has been in the West Hill sanatorium at Riverdale for the last few months, and the affidavits of family experts show that he is not in condition to defend the suit.

His brother, Monroe Einstein, was appointed his guardian ad litem. He submitted an affidavit to Supreme Court Justice Davis stating that it is impossible to obtain information concerning the wife's charges owing to his brother's condition.

Monroe Einstein said that his brother informed him that he was married secretly to the plaintiff. He denied that his parents were in a conspiracy to separate his brother from the plaintiff, and said that although the marriage took place four years ago his parents knew nothing about it until last April.

As to the cruelty charge he said: "All my brother's acts for the last two years and a half have been influenced by his defective judgment."
